

Talking about the weather

1 Look at the pictures. Listen to the four conversations. Write the number of the conversation under the correct picture.

a Conversation

b

Conversation

c

Conversation

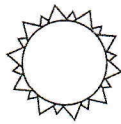

d

Conversation

2 Listen to 1F again. Tick the weather the people talk about.

a

b

c

d

Conversation 1	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
Conversation 2	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
Conversation 3	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
Conversation 4	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

3 Listen to 1F again. Match the expression about the weather with the correct response.

- | | |
|----------------------------------|--|
| a Another beautiful day, eh? | Oh, tell me about it. |
| b Looks like rain. | Oh it's so hot! |
| c It's freezing today, isn't it? | Yes it does, doesn't it? |
| d Lovely weather for ducks. | And I reckon this cold weather's here to stay. |

4 Practise these short dialogues about the weather.

A: Another beautiful day, eh?

B: Yes it sure is a lovely day.

A: Looks like rain, doesn't it?

B: Yeah but we could do with a bit of rain.

A: Brrr it's cold today, isn't it?

B: Yes, I think winter's here.