7A Community announcements

Announcement 1

You're listening to radio 703. It's 5 minutes to 12, the midday news in 5 minutes. And now that the summer's here, we'll all be down at the beach having fun. Now, we all love the beach but it's important to be safe. Remember to swim between the red and yellow flags and listen to the lifesavers. They're there for your safety.

Announcement 2

Your attention please. We have a small boy who has lost his parents. His name is Stephen and he is 4 years old. He has black hair and is wearing yellow bathers. Could Stephen's parents please come to the office?

7B Buying sunscreen

Assistant: How can I help you?

Customer: Oh I want to buy some sunscreen for myself and for my children.

Assistant: Mm. Do you want something water resistant?

Customer: Oh, yes.

Assistant: I'd recommend the Quadblock.

Customer: Mmm.

Assistant: It's water resistant for up to four hours.

Customer: Oh, right.

Assistant: And it's 30+.

Customer: Oh. What does that mean?

Assistant: It's very strong and will keep out most of the rays that harm you.

Customer: Oh, is it a cream?

Assistant: A cream but you can also get a lotion. That's the one I use myself.

Customer: Oh, how much is the lotion?

Assistant: Eleven ninety five.

Customer: Right. Well, I'll take that one, I think.

Assistant: Goodo ...(fade out)

7C Arranging swimming lessons

Receptionist: Sport and Recreation. This is Rachel.

Caller: Hi. I'd like to book my nine year old son in for swimming lessons in January.

Receptionist: Um which pool did you want to go to?

Caller: Winton.

Receptionist: From the 4th to the 14th of January?

Caller: That's right.

Receptionist: Ah, can I get his surname?

Caller: Mitchell.

Receptionist: M.I.T.C.H.E.L.L.?

Caller: That's right.

Receptionist: And the first name?

Caller: Um Ben. B. E. N.
Receptionist: Your address?
Caller: 105
Receptionist: Yep?
Caller: Station St, Winton.
Receptionist: And your home phone number?
Caller: 9.7.3.4... 2.3.1.6.
Receptionist: Does he have any medical conditions or disabilities?
Caller: No.
Receptionist: Okay. That's $22. What card are you paying with?
Caller: Visa

7D Talking about the beach and the pool

Debbie: Beth, do you and your daughter go to the beach?
Beth: Yeah we sometimes go to the beach but.....
Debbie: I love it.
Beth: ... but the pool's just down the road.
Debbie: But the pool smells of chlorine. I don't like it.
Beth: Yeah I know. I don't like it much. But my daughter's going to start swimming lessons soon at the pool.
Debbie: Oh right. So I guess the pool's easier for you.
Beth: Yeah, while she's so young.
Debbie: I remember when my kids were young

7E A story about the beach

Pete: Have you ever seen anyone being saved at the beach?
Shirley: Oh, yeah. I once saw these four guys walk out into a part of the surf which I know is really dangerous, right?
Pete: Yeah
Shirley: And then all of a sudden they just started to drown
Pete: Oh you're joking!
Shirley: ... No really because the rip got them.
Pete: What happened?
Shirley: Well. I'm there watching these guys drowning. There were no lifesavers around and suddenly these three big surfers came belting down the sand. Great big strong Aussie guys and they pulled them all out.
Pete: Boy, they were lucky!
Shirley: Yeah, it was amazing!
